

Aspiring Academic Registrars

ACADEMIC REGISTRARS'
COUNCIL

Connecting and developing
HE professionals

Speakers

Chris Hulse, Director of Registry & Academic Affairs, University of Nottingham

Julie Kelly, Academic Registrar, University of Hertfordshire

Lesley O'Keeffe, Registrar, Brunel University London, ARC Professional Development Lead

Emma Wilkins, Executive Search Consultant, Dixon Walter

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| 9.15 | Registration opens |
| 9.45 to 10.00 | Welcome, Introductions and Overview of the Day – Lesley O'Keeffe |
| 10.00 to 11.00 | Career progressions – including the personal reflections of a former attendee who has successfully aspired to become an Academic Registrar – all, chaired by Lesley O'Keeffe |
| 11.00 to 11.15 | Refreshments and Networking |
| 11.15 to 12.00 | Managing experts when you're not an expert – Chris Hulse

A key challenge for any Academic Registrar is managing expert or specialist teams, often when you have no direct experience of that specialism. This session will give some insight into how to approach the challenges. |
| 12.00 to 12.45 | Key relationships: working in complex organisations – Julie Kelly |
| 12.45 to 13.30 | Lunch and Networking |
| 13.30 to 14.15 | Generic and specific: what is it like doing the job day-to-day? – all, chaired by Lesley O'Keeffe Interactive panel presentation and discussion |
| 14.15 to 14.30 | Refreshments and Networking |
| 14.30 to 15.45 | Career destinations: hitting the target – Lesley O'Keeffe and an executive search consultant Emma Wilkins

A look at how to approach securing an Academic Registrar role, including insights from a recruitment consultant on what senior management teams are looking for, different interview processes and building your social media profile |
| 15.45 to 16.00 | Round up and close |